PRECISION PRODUCTION ENGINEERS & TOOLMAKERS

Counterfeit and fraudulent items

There is large, profitable and growing capability by unscrupulous organisations to counterfeit or fraudulently produce and sell aerospace & defence grade components and materials as genuine. The world-wide trade in these illegal items is worth £ multi-millions per annum.

Manufacturers of aerospace & defence equipment are increasingly at risk of unwittingly embodying these counterfeit or fraudulent items into their deliverable products with potentially catastrophic consequences.

This risk has the potential to manifest at any point in the supply chain so Wilsons Engineering demands equal vigilance from their sub-tiers throughout the supply chain in avoiding and detecting all items that are not genuine.
